2020 Spain National Music Award

SPANISH BRASS (a) LIVE!!!

LIVE and (a) LIVE

Spanish Brass has returned to the stage with renewed energy after a too-long pandemic break. The extreme situation that the world has endured this past year has affected every aspect of daily life. Society has lost so much: lives, dreams, projects... But human beings, with their irreducible survival and adaptive instincts, have already set in motion the beginnings of renewed social, affective and expressive relationships.

Culture is back. Music lives.
